Summary

I am a dedicated web developer passionate about driving innovation in the tech industry. I have experience optimizing for performance and scalability to deliver dynamic and responsive designs, ensuring applications work across various devices. I focus on hard and soft skills, striving for continuous improvement and value-driven results.

Technical Skills

Languages: JavaScript, Python, C++.
Front-end: React, JavaScript, HTML, CSS, Bootstrap, SCSS.
Back-end: Node (Express), MongoDB.
Tools: Git, GitHub.
Algorithms and data structure: (Big O, Iterative/Recursive Sorts, Binary Search, Trees).
MERN Stack:
I mainly focus on the MERN stack, especially in leveraging React.js for front-end development.
My expertise includes:
Building reusable components and managing state effectively with React.
Using Node.js and Express.js to develop APIs that integrate seamlessly with front-end components.
Managing application data with MongoDB, though my focus remains primarily on front-end engineering.
Experienced with responsive design, ensuring applications work across various devices, optimizing for performance and scalability.
